Strong Language in Parliament.

LONDON, June 4.—In the House of Commons, during the time of putting questions to Ministers, Mr. Thomas P. O'Connor was called to order for using the word "mendacious." Mr. O'Kelly (some member for Roscommon, there upon applied the epithets "calumnious" and "lying" to several members of the House, and his suspension for the remainder of the sitting was moved by Mr. Gladstone and carried by a vote of 188 to 14. Mr. O'Kelly then withdrew quietly. Mr. Parnell gave notice that he would call attention to the circumstances of the suspension of Mr. O'Kelly on Friday. The statement which Mr. T. P. O'Connor, in the House of Commons, termed "mendacious" was one in a question by Mr. A. L. Tottenham (conservative,) member for Leitrim, attributing the murders in Galway to the action of the land league. The whole proceedings in the House showed growing friction between the government and the Irish members.

Professor Robertson Smith.
 EDINBURGH, June 4.—Professor Robertson Smith, who was suspended by the assembly of the Scotch Free Church from teaching his classes at the Aberdeen University for certain writings, particularly an article on the Hebrew language and literature in the 'Encyclopaedia Britannica,' has accepted an offer from the Blacks, publishers, to join the staff on the Encyclopaedia Britannica.

THE EUROPEAN SQUADRON.

Interesting News from Admiral Howell.
 Rear Admiral Howell, commanding the European station, reports to the Department the arrival of the flagship Trenton, and of the Galena, at Villefranche, Spain, on the 15th prox.; the arrival of the Nile on the 16th from Gibraltar, having been detained there for several days by bad weather. During the gale at Gibraltar, Commander Casey reports the fouling of the port chain of the Quinnebaug and the loss of an anchor. Arrangements have been made for its recovery. Admiral Howell states further that all the transfers of men, of paymasters and of ordnance stores between the Nile and the Quinnebaug were made before the sailing of the latter vessel for the United States.

Under date of May 4th, Commander Casey reports as follows: "I have to report that I passed a very dangerous wreck just awash off Cape Trafalgar yesterday forenoon. I picked up a board with the name 'V. A. Zegeffoff.' This would lead me to believe it to be an Austrian, and this is confirmed by the reports on shore. Fragments of the wreck were strewn for miles in a northwest and southeast direction, some of the pieces being heavy timber and portions of deck. On my arrival I reported the wreck to the authorities at once. This morning I learned from a not very reliable source that the wreck was an Austrian bark loaded with lumber, which had been run into a few days ago by a Spanish vessel. Had I known the Nile was not here, that I had ample time, I would have tried to break up the hull with a torpedo or by firing into it."

Prospects of Bulgaria.
 LONDON, June 4.—News from Sofia represents that the agitation against the plans of Prince Alexander of Bulgaria grows in intensity. There seems every probability that an attempt to realize his plans will be strongly opposed. Agitators who go about the country are advising moderation, and abstention from all but legal and constitutional means. The struggle, no doubt, will be a hard one.

Canadian Consolidation.
 BELLEVILLE, ONT., June 4.—The Grand Trunk Railway Company has taken possession of the Grand Junction Railway, which extends from Belleville to Peterboro. Nine hundred thousand dollars is said to have been the price paid.

Justin McCarthy's Motion.
 In the House of Commons last night Justin McCarthy's motion regarding the Irish arrests was discussed at length. Mr. Parnell made a very strong speech, in which he said the people of Ireland were saturated with disaffection, and if blood was shed, a revolution would surely follow and that the landlords would be murdered.

Lord Hartington replied, and charged Mr. Parnell with making serious threats. Mr. McCarthy's motion was rejected by a vote of 130 to 23.

Herdie and Kelly.
 A suit in equity was begun in Philadelphia yesterday by Peter Herdie against Hon. Wm. D. Kelley, the Herdie Personal Transportation company of Philadelphia, and others to restrain proceedings upon execution and levy upon the property of the company. The plaintiff, among other things, avers that the judgment was entered by fraud and collusion between Kelley, officers of the company and H. G. Sickle, a former president of the company. He further avers that the business will be profitable if properly conducted.

Jay Gould Negotiating in Delaware.
 Col. Bingham, one of Jay Gould's agents, has been down in Delaware negotiating for the purchase of the Kent County, Smyrna and Delaware Bay charter by the Jersey Central. Its tracks extend from Bombay Hook to Chester town; from the latter village ten miles are to be built on a grading made some years ago to Herring Pond, on Chesapeake Bay. Bombay Hook is opposite Bayside, the South Jersey terminus of the New Jersey Southern, which the Jersey Central controls. Large steamers like the Baltimore and Ohio's Canton mammoth ferryboats are to transport freight across from Bayside to Bombay Hook. Herring Pond is near the mouth of Elk river, and is just across the bay from Baltimore.

A Pocket-book Found.
 A lady who had been attending a trial in the Criminal Court in Baltimore yesterday, in which her daughter was a witness, missed her pocket-book as she left the court room. She reported the fact to the bailiffs and search was made, but without success until Mr. Knoche, interpreter for the court, brought out of his umbrella the lady had in her hand, when the missing pocket-book was discovered, to her great surprise and satisfaction.

Progress in Atlanta.
 A street railway company has been organized at Atlanta, Ga., with a board of directors composed of some of the leading business men of that flourishing city. A route has been selected, and it is proposed to have the road finished by the first of September, in order to accommodate visitors to the cotton exposition.

ALBANY TO-DAY.

Conkling Gets 29 Votes.

The New York Senatorship.

ALBANY, June 4.—There was a small attendance at the joint session of the legislature to-day, which met at noon to ballot for U. S. Senators to fill the vacancies caused by the resignations of Messrs. Conkling and Platt. The first ballot for the Conkling vacancy—short term—resulted as follows:

Short Term—Votes: John C. Jacobs, dem., 31; Roscoe Conkling, 29; W. A. Wheeler, 13; Gov. A. B. Cornell, 18; Sherman S. Rodgers, 13; Geo. B. Bradley, dem., 1; Richard Crowley, 2; Elbridge G. Lapham, 4. A number of pairs are announced.

Pairs and changes votes.—The following Senators were paired: Mr. Acton with Mr. Fowler; Mr. Williams with Mr. Murtha; Mr. Pitts with Mr. Seabacker, and Mr. Schroeder with Mr. Stevens.

The following Assemblymen were paired: Mr. Andrews with Mr. Cowles, Mr. Brehm with Mr. Brooks, and Mr. S. R. Welles with Mr. Boardman.

The following were the changes made: Mr. Madden, from Woodin to Cornell; Mr. Fenner, from Fenton to Cornell; Mr. Holt, from Lapham to Rogers; Mr. Palmer, from Cornell to Crowley; Mr. Scott, from Cornell to Lapham, no choice.

Vote for the long term.—A vote was then taken for Mr. Platt's term, and resulted as follows: Francis Kernan, 31; Thomas C. Platt, 26; Chauncey M. Depew, 13; Gov. A. B. Cornell, 8; Elbridge G. Lapham, 2; Richard Crowley, 3; Charles E. Folger, 3; Silas B. Dutcher, 2; Warren Miller, 3; Henry E. Tremaine, 1; J. Van Cott, 1; W. A. Wheeler, 1; Reuben E. Fenton, 1.

Destructive Fire in Maine.
 BANGOR, ME., June 4.—Pearson's mills at Great Works, reported to be on fire last night, were burned to the ground, with the store and blacksmith shop; also three railroad cars. No buildings of the town have yet caught fire, but they are in great danger, the wind blowing directly on the town. A large pile of cedar logs is now burning. A steamer from Bangor is at work on the ruins. The mill is insured for $30,000.

Decrease in Number of Commercial Failures.

NEW YORK, June 4.—The number of failures throughout the United States and Canada reported during the past week in Bradstreet's was 81, a decrease of 39 as compared with the preceding week, but Decoration Day must be taken into consideration, which makes the actual decrease comparatively much smaller. The New England states and Canada show an increase as compared with the preceding week, while the other sections of the country all show a decrease. The Middle States had 17, a decrease of 14; New England 20, an increase of 3; the Western States 19, a decrease of 10; the Southern States 7, a decrease of 5; the Pacific Coast States and Territories 4, a decrease of 5; Canada and the provinces 14, an increase of 10. In Philadelphia the recent heavy failures have attracted much attention and occasioned considerable comment, and three more concerns are added to the list—MacKey, Johnson, Turner & Co., clothing; J. A. Southwick, dry goods, and the Herdie Coach Company. The other failures of importance during the week were the Discount and Deposit Bank of Chattanooga, Tenn., and the Arnold & Co., wholesale liquors, New York city.

Industrial Development of the South.
 ATLANTA, GA., June 4.—J. B. Killebrew, of Tennessee, has been appointed chief of the department of minerals and woods, and will at once proceed to collect the finest exhibit of woods, minerals, ores, etc., ever made in the history of the United States for the southern country.

Apprenticeship of a King.
 PARIS, June 4.—Prince Milan, of Serbia is now visiting Pesth. From Hungary he goes to Vienna and thence to Berlin. It is surmised that he is making a tour of the European capitals preliminary to assuming kingly rank.

The Reformed Church Synod.
 HUDSON, N. Y., June 4.—The Reformed Church Synod of America opened with 131 delegates present. The classes of Holland, Mich., of Grand Rapids, Mich., and of Wisconsin presented memorials against cremation, claiming that it is an institution opposed to Holy Writ, and that it is antagonistic to the church. A demand was made that the Synod take decisive measures to suppress the spread of the organization in the church, and that ministers be compelled either to sever their connection with Freemasonry or with the church.

Epsom Summer Meeting.
 LONDON, June 4.—Bell's Life in London says: "The Epsom summer meeting, just concluded, is universally declared to have been one of the most interesting and successful ever held. The weather was continuously fine, and the attendance unusually large. The success of the meeting in winning the Derby, and of the unbeaten Tebeis, who won the Oaks states, and the exciting match race for the Epsom gold cup between Bend Or and Robert-the-Devil, contributed to make the meeting one which will be long remembered in sporting annals. A veteran sportsman says: 'I have seen a few Derbys, St. Legers and Oaks, but never witnessed such enthusiasm or cheering as when Iroquois was led back after his brilliant victory.'"

Bar-tenders.
 Patrick Daly was fined $105 and costs, for keeping an unlicensed bar. Julius Fouth was found guilty and sentence postponed for the same offense. Ann M. Nolia paid the costs on the same charge. Henry Christman was found not guilty of keeping bar open on Sunday. Sam'l C. Carter and Alonzo E. Kimball continued until Monday.

Pity of a Lone Fisherman.
 A man 64 years of age was detected yesterday fishing in Central Park, New York. He had landed one catfish, which he said, he was anxious to carry home to his father, a man 103 years of age. Touched by his filial piety the Police Court allowed him to carry his fish to his parent on payment of one dollar.

Col. Thomas A. Scott's Will.

Special Dispatch to THE DAILY CRITIC.

PHILADELPHIA, June 4.—Col. Thomas A. Scott's will was admitted to probate here yesterday. It contains little of public interest, inasmuch as no distinct reference is made to the nature or value of most of the property bequeathed, and as no public bequests are announced. Col. Scott wisely distributed while living, such sums as he desired to give to institutions and individuals not connected with his family circle. One of the provisions of the will directs that no inventory of the personal estate devised shall be filed in any public office. Its principal provisions relate to the future ownership of different portions of his real estate, some of which is left to his brothers and sisters, to certain specific bequests to his wife and children, and to the proportions they are each to receive of his residuary estate.

The Herdie Coach Company.
 Another phase of the Herdie coach controversy was developed yesterday by a suit brought by Peter Herdie, who claims that he is owner of the patent relating to the style of coaches used, and that the judgment recently given to Judge Kelly, under which the property of the company was recently seized, was so manipulated as to do injustice to Herdie's interests. The other parties claim that Herdie damaged the prospects of the company by the imperfect manner in which he constructed the coaches, and they are now organizing a stake and omnibus line which is to use a new style of vehicles.

A LITTLE GIRL SHOT BY HER BROTHER.

Probably Fatal Shooting in the Fourth Precinct.

About 10 o'clock this morning a young man 18 years old, named John MacMamee, living in an alley in the 4th precinct, between Twenty-first and Twenty-second streets and Massachusetts avenue and P street, was playing with a pistol in his room when his little sister, named Annie, a girl of 5, came into the room and became deeply interested in the inspection of the pistol. The brother continued playing with the weapon for some time when it was accidentally discharged, the ball entering the little girl's left ear and going into the upper part of the head.

Dr. J. P. Soltron was immediately summoned and rendered medical aid, but was unable to find the ball. The wound was pronounced very serious, and the story caused great commotion in the neighborhood.

At a late hour this afternoon the doctor stated the wound would almost inevitably prove fatal.

There is no doubt the shooting was entirely accidental, but gross carelessness must have been the cause of the probably fatal accident.

The Star Route Scandal.

The investigation into the alleged Star Route irregularities continues but so far as known with out any further developments of a startling character. The Attorney General who is leading the investigation is thoroughly in earnest and spent some time at the Post office Department to-day. Col. W. A. Cook, the special Assistant Attorney and Mr. A. M. Gibson are also actively engaged in procuring all information tending to throw light on the subject, and are receiving assistance from many quarters. Col. Cook visited several of the law officers of the Treasury Department to-day. All parties are very reticent as to recent discoveries and will not say if any one else has been implicated or not.

A False Report.

The Republican this morning published a story that Hon. J. N. Tynes, the First Assistant Postmaster General, had become disgusted with public life and had resigned his office and gone to New York not to return to his duties. The Republican then went on to say that ex-Senator George C. Spencer, of Ala., was yesterday appointed First Assistant Postmaster General, and that Judge J. J. Noah, formerly appointment clerk of the War Department, had been appointed Chief of the Pay Division, Sixth Auditor's Office, vice Crowlly, promoted, Deputy Sixth Auditor.

The only part of the above statements which is true, is that Judge Tynes is in New York, and that in accordance with an established custom in all new administrations, he has placed his resignation at the disposal of the President. The resignation has not been accepted. Senator Spencer has not been appointed First Assistant Postmaster General, nor has Judge Noah been appointed General, nor has Judge Noah been appointed Chief of the Pay Division, Sixth Auditor's Office, vice Crowlly, promoted, Deputy Sixth Auditor.

A Ghostly Brick-thrower.

A ghost who clanks chains is a nuisance, but a ghost who throws bricks is positively dangerous. Such a muscular spirit has lately been masquerading about a deserted house in Chicago, beneath which money is supposed to be buried. This sanguinary apparition brings to the pastime of brick throwing considerable skill and admirable discrimination, for on a recent evening he knocked Policeman Martin O'Connor off a board fence at the first shot, and subsequently came within an ace of disemboweling an inquisitive reporter.

The Treasury Investigation.

The Treasury investigating committee is still at work and will be for some time yet. The members will not talk on the subject and very little is known of the result of their labors so far. There are any number of speculations as to the result, and the impression is very general that several important changes in high offices of the department will be made. It is understood that a partial report will be prepared and submitted to Secretary Windom upon his return from the West. It is said that one of the officials interested in the result of the investigation says that persons higher in authority than himself were responsible for all his acts. The report will be an exceedingly interesting document and is awaited with much anxiety by those directly concerned.
